Session I 11 AM

Session II 1 PM

"Bring Them Home" explores the harrowing issue of deported veterans—a group who has honorably served yet finds themselves exiled by the very nation they defended. Through intimate portraits, "Bring Them Home" spotlights the emotional and psychological battles these veterans face post-service—mental health struggles and moral injury—while they wage a larger fight for justice and re-entry into the U.S. It's a stark examination of policy versus human cost, of citizenship entangled with service.

Q&A with Margaret Cargioli, Alex Murillo, Jean Dorsainvil, James Smith, and Rob Young
